LAST TIME OUT

Gardner-Webb forced five turnovers, defeating Campbell 35-7 in Big South play at Barker-Lane Stadium. The Camels, who were hosting their first ever Big South football game, ended a four game winning streak in home conference openers.

A record crowd of 6,712 packed Barker-Lane Stadium, resetting the mark for the third straight CU Homecoming date.

Redshirt freshman wide receiver Caleb Snead went over the century mark for the second straight game, hauling in seven passes for 119 yards and a touchdown. Snead's 648 yards and seven touchdowns for the season are both CU freshmen records, and the second most by a

SCOUTING KENNESAW STATE

The second-ranked Owls have won seven straight, carrying a 7-1 mark and a perfect 3-0 Big South ledger into Saturday's game. KSU has won eight consecutive Big South contests, including last season's 5-0 mark.

Chandler Burks leads Kennesaw State with 618 yards and 19 touchdowns rushing, adding 739 yards through the air and seven more TDs. Darnell Holland tacks on 487 yards and three touchdowns rushing, while Shaquil Terry has reached the end zone five times.

On the defensive side, Bryson Armstrong has collected 48 tackles with 4.0 stops for loss, while Anthony Gore owns 43 total tackles with 3.0 sacks.

The Camels will be taking on its highest ranked opponent in its 11 year modern history, and its third ranked opponent ever. CU last faced a ranked opponent on September 15, 2012 at No. 4 Old Dominion, falling 70-14. The Camels also faced No. 22 Jacksonville on November 20, 2010, falling

Campbell is one of three programs in the NCAA FCS to average a home sellout in each of the last two seasons (2016 & 2017). Only Montana State and Mercer can make that claim, along with the Camels.

Daniel Smith was one of three FCS quarterbacks to rush for 1,000 yards in 2017, joined by Montana State's Chris Murray (1,124) and Kennesaw State's Chandler Burks (1,103). Smith led all quarterbacks in rushing in 2017 with 1,272 yards.

Four Campbell Football alumni have signed with NFL teams since the program was brought back in 2008. Defensive tackle Greg Milhouse joined the New York Giants and long snapper Danny Dillon signed with the Arizona Cardinals in 2016, participating in NFL preseason games. Milhouse also saw preseason time with Seattle in 2017. Ugonna Awuruonye (Atlanta, 2016) and DeShawn Jones (Seattle, 2018) have also attended NFL rookie mini-camps.

The Camels have posted at least five wins in each of the last five seasons, including six in 2017 to match a program best in the category. In the programs previous six years, the five win mark had only been reached once (6 in 2011).

With Campbell's week three matchup moved to Buies Creek, the Camels are on schedule to host seven home games in 2018, the most in program history. In its 11th season, Campbell has played six home games seven times, and showcased just five home dates three times (2008, 2009 and 2011).

In its first season as a part of football in the Big South, Campbell will see plenty of new faces on the field, meeting seven first time opponents in 2017, including three in conference play.

- 33 -

Campbell saw its streak of 33 straight games with a takeaway come to an end against Gardner-Webb. During the streak, (5 games in 2015, 10 in 2016, 11 in 2017, 7 in 2018), the Camels posted 74 total takeaways, including 46 interceptions and recovered 28 fumbles. Campbell owns 17 takeaways through eight games in 2018.

- 35 -

35 Camels made their debut in the Orange and Black in the 2018 opener. Six newcomers were in the starting lineup. In total, 15 redshirt freshmen, 12 true freshmen and eight transfers saw game action, helping Campbell to a 49-26 win to open the season.

It will be the first meeting between the programs on the gridiron.

RYAN SETS ANOTHER CAREER MARK

Redshirt senior linebacker Jack Ryan became Campbell's all-time tackles for loss leader Saturday, now with 35.0 career stops for loss. Ryan, already Campbell's all-time leading tackler with 302, posting 1.0 TFL, including 0.5 sack. He totaled 11 tackles on the day.

The Camels amassed 12 tackles for loss against the Runnin' Bulldogs, a season-best and the third most in program single game history. It was the most since posting 13 TFLs in a win at Stetson in 2013, and two short of the overall record (vs. Apprentice, 9/10/11).

BIG CROWDS IN THE CREEK

A record crowd of 6,712 attended Campbell's Homecoming matchup and Big South home debut against Gardner-Webb. Four of the five largest crowds in Barker-Lane Stadium history have come on the last four homecoming dates, including 6,691 in 2017.

The greater than capacity crowd accounted for Barker-Lane Stadium's 16th sellout since the facility was expanded to 5,500 seats in 2013, and third of 2018. Campbell has averaged a sellout in each of the past two seasons, joining only Montana State and Mercer as one of three programs in FCS to accomplish the feat. Barker-Lane Stadium has set an overall attendance record in two straight, and five of the last six seasons.

LEADING THE CAMELS

Daniel Smith owns 1,397 yards and 12 touchdowns passing, adding another 495 yards rushing and 10 more scores on the ground for the Camels. With his first quarter, 12-yard TD run at Monmouth, Smith became the first QB in Big South history to throw and rush for 10 touchdowns in a single season.

Snead owns team-highs of 648 receiving yards and a Big South best seven TDs, while Aaron Blockmon has tallied 486 yards and three scores. Rocky Reid adds 418 yards rushing and five touchdowns.

Jack Ryan leads the defense with 70 total stops, including 7.0 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks. Dorian Jones chips in 46 tackles, while Deontae Henderson owns two interceptions and Damien Dozier has posted 9.5 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks.

NEXT UP

Campbell will head to Presbyterian on November 10 before closing out the season at home on November 17, hosting Charleston Southern.

CU DEFENSE AT IT AGAIN

Campbell saw its streak of 33 straight games with a takeaway come to an end against Gardner-Webb. During the streak, (5 games in 2015, 10 in 2016, 11 in 2017, 7 in 2018), the Camels posted 74 total takeaways, including 46 interceptions and recovered 28 fumbles. Campbell owns 17 takeaways through eight games in 2018. Last season, the Camels ranked among the nation's leaders (10th) in takeaways (27), aided by a school record 19 interceptions.

The CU defense has posted 17 takeaways through eight games, including nine fumble recoveries, ranking eighth in the FCS, and eight interceptions, ranking 41st nationally. CU's 17 takeaways ranks 21st in the country.

Last season, the Camels ranked among the nation's leaders (10th) in takeaways (27), aided by a school record 19 interceptions.

SNEAD TAKES THIRD BIG SOUTH FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONOR

After a record-setting performance in Campbell's Big South debut, Caleb Snead has been named the conference's freshman of the week.

Snead, a redshirt freshman, set Campbell single-game records with 188 receiving yards and 10 catches, adding two touchdowns in the Camels' 38-21 loss at Monmouth. The Lynchburg, Va. native passed Aaron Blockmon's previous all-time receiving yards high of 180 yards (9/10/16 at Chowan) and Preston Dodson's former receptions mark of nine (9/24/11 vs Jacksonville). The rookie's 188 receiving yards are the second most by a FCS freshman this season (Dev Holmes, Albany, 238 yards, 8 catches).

The honor marks Snead's third Big South Freshman of the Week nod (9/10, 9/17). Snead has been named to the STATS FCS Jerry Rice Award watch list, named for the legendary Hall of Fame wide receiver and presented in the postseason to the FCS freshman player of the year.

EARLY SUCCESS LEADING TO WINS

Monmouth's first quarter touchdown was only the second such score allowed by the Camels to that point this season. Previously, only Coastal Carolina, a FBS program, had found the end zone in the first quarter against the Camels.

In fact, the Camels owned an 89-10 first quarter edge, and a 138-33 advantage through their first six games this season. The Camels have held opponents without a first half TD five times, with the only exceptions being Coastal Carolina and Monmouth. On the other side of the ball, Campbell also saw its streak of first possession TDs come to an end at Monmouth (four games).

Campbell outscored its opponents 121-10 over its three game winning streak.

ROLLER SERVING ON FCS SELECTION COMMITTEE

Campbell Director of Athletics Bob Roller has been selected as a member of the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Selection Committee for a four-year term beginning with the current 2018 season. Roller, in his eighth year at Campbell, officially rotated onto the committee this month. The FCS Selection committee consists of 10 athletics directors from the FCS conferences that have automatic qualification status to the football playoffs. It is the only national committee that is 100 percent comprised of athletic directors.

Roller is one of five incoming members on the committee, chaired by Central Arkansas Director of Athletics Dr. Brad Teague. The committee will select 24 teams to play for the championship, with 14 of those receiving at-large slots.

Selection weekend coincides with the last playing date of the regular season, November 17. After conference calls throughout the season, the selection committee will meet in Indianapolis to complete the selections for release on Sunday, November 18. Round 1 of the FCS Playoffs begins on November 24, culminating with the championship game on Saturday, January 5 in Frisco, Texas.

SNEAD NAMED TO JERRY RICE AWARD WATCH LIST

Campbell rookie standout Caleb Snead is one of 15 nationally named to the initial STATS FCS Jerry Rice Award watch list, named for the legendary Hall of Fame wide receiver and presented in the postseason to the FCS freshman player of the year since 2011.

It is the third consecutive year that a Camel has been named to the Rice Award watch list, following Elijah Burress in 2016 and Daniel Smith, who was a finalist in 2017.

JONES NAMED BIG SOUTH'S FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK 10/8

After notching a pick-six in Campbell's historic win over Wagner, Dorian Jones was named the Big South's Freshman of the Week. The redshirt freshman defensive back added four tackles and a pass breakup in addition to his second quarter interception return for a touchdown in a dominant 49-3 win for Campbell over Wagner.

With pressure coming from Damien Dozier, Jones picked off Wagner's Luke Massei, coasting 30 yards for the touchdown to put Campbell ahead 35-3 before the halftime break. The interception was one of four for the Camels on the day, who posted six total takeaways in the win. The CU defense held Wagner to just 85 passing yards. Campbell's six takeaways tied for its second most ever in a single game, marking the team's most since 2011. Over the last three games, Campbell has held opponents to just 10 points.

The Orlando, Fla. native is the third Camel to be named Big South Freshman of the Week this season (Celeb Snead: 9/10, 9/17; Justice Galloway-Velazquez: 9:24), and the 10th time a Camel has earned a weekly honor from the conference in 2018.

RYAN TABBED FCS DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Ryan posted a Campbell season-high 15 tackles with 3.0 stops for loss, including a sack, leading the Camels over visiting North Alabama Saturday, 30-7. The redshirt senior also broke up a pass and added a QB hurry in the win. Ryan also became Campbell's all-time tackles leader in the victory, passing Milton Brown's (2008-11) career mark. Ryan now owns 276 career stops.

Ryan was also named the Big South's Defensive Player of the Week following his record-setting performance. The 15 tackle performance, his 11th career double figure stops game, tied for the second most in his career (16 vs. Jacksonville in 2017). Ryan's 3.0 TFLs matched a career high and tied for

HARTSHORN NAMED CAMPBELL TROPHY SEMIFINALIST

Campbell's Thomas Hartshorn is one of 40 Football Championship Subdivision student-athletes to be named a semifinalist for the 2018 William V. Campbell Trophy®, presented by Fidelity Investments®, by The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame (NFF). The award, known as the "Academic Heisman", recognizes an individual as the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation. The Apex, N.C. native and business administration major will complete his MBA in 2019. Hartshorn will also have a minor in management and economics. He owns three tackles for the season.

SAFETY FIRST

The Campbell defense recorded a safety for the first time since 2013 (9/28 at Valparaiso) against North Alabama, putting the Camels ahead 9-0 on the way to a 23-0 first quarter lead. The safety was the third recorded by a Campbell defense in its modern era, also tallying a safety against Morehead State in 2009 (10/31).

FORMER CAMEL MERRITT SIGNS WITH ATLANTA LEGENDS

Former Campbell standout defensive back Carlos Merritt has signed with the Atlanta Legends of the new Alliance of American Football, set to kick off in February of 2019. The Legends will be coached by Brad Childress.

Merritt totaled 168 tackles in three seasons (2015-17) for the Camels after transferring from South Carolina State, seeing action in 31 Campbell games. The Union City, Ga. native was named First Team All-Pioneer Football League as a senior in 2017, leading the PFL and tying a Campbell single-season record with six interceptions. He added 94 total tackles, the second-most ever by a Camel in a single season.

DENNIS FLIPS THE FIELD

Campbell redshirt junior punter Brad Dennis is now seventh in the FCS in punting with a 44.1 yards per attempt average. The number also leads the Big South, posting 12 punts inside the 20, seven 50-plus yard boots and four fair catches with four touchbacks in 43 attempts.

Coming into the Monmouth game, Dennis had also helped the Camels rank ninth in the nation in net punting at 39.7 yards (now 39th, 36.7). The lefty was named the Big South's Special Teams Player of the Week following Campbell's 42-0 win over Shaw, punting three times for a 46.3 yards per average, pinning the Bears inside the 20 twice.

Dennis averaged 36.5 yards per punt in his first season as the Camels' full-time punter in 2017.

CAMPBELL AGAINST THE FBS

Campbell's week three game against Coastal Carolina marked the first time a FBS program has visited a FCS foe in a true road game since Army traveled to Yale in 2014, and just the third time

MIKE MINTER

HEAD COACH • 6TH YEAR
NEBRASKA '97

Former Carolina Panthers standout and Nebraska Football Hall of Famer Mike Minter enters his sixth season as head football coach at Campbell University in 2017. Over the last five seasons, Campbell has reset nearly every school record in the books. 23 Camels have been named first or second team all-conference, while 37 have been tabbed honorable mention all-league.

Campbell finished 2017 6-5 overall and 5-3 in PFL play, matching the program's best overall and conference records in its 10 year history. The Camels also set a record for road wins (3).

Ten Camels earned All-PFL recognition, with safety Carolos Merritt and defensive end Emmanuel Olenga taking First Team nods. Quarterback Daniel Smith, wide receiver Aaron Blockmon and offensive tackle Shuler Littleton were also tabbed Second Team All-PFL, while five others were named honorable mention All-PFL.

Smith was named the PFL's Offensive Freshman of the Year, and was a finalist for the STATS Jerry Rice Award for FCS freshman player of the year, finishing fourth in the final voting. Smith finished the 2017 regular season with the fourth-most rushing yards in the country, with his 1,272 yards on the ground leading all FCS freshmen and quarterbacks. Smith set Campbell single-season records for rushing yards, total offense (3,161), all-purpose yards (1,272) and touchdowns responsible for (30). After just one season, Smith is already Campbell's career leader in touchdown passes with 18.

The Camels set 16 team single-season school records in 2017, plus 19 individual single-season marks on the way to their historic season. Additionally, CU set Barker-Lane Stadium records for average, total and single-game attendance for the second straight season.

In Minter's fourth season at the helm, Campbell went 5-5 on the year, notching the program's second season at .500 or better in its nine year history, and ranked third in the PFL in rushing offense, standing 19th nationally at 209 yards per game, as well as 17th in the country in total defense (322.1 yards per game). Sophomore wide receiver Aaron Blockmon also led the PFL in receiving yards (1,038) and touchdowns (10), headlining a group of 11 Camels that earned all-conference accolades.

The Camels ranked fifth in the nation in total defense in 2015 (279.3 per game), standing third in team sacks per game (3.55) and ninth in scoring defense (17.7). The team shattered program records for all three categories, adding single season marks for tackles for loss (85.0) and total sacks (38.0).

16 Camels were honored on the conference's All-PFL teams following the 2015 season, with junior running back De'Shawn Jones, redshirt senior defensive lineman Ugonna Awuruonye and senior defensive lineman Greg Milhouse Jr. all receiving First Team All-PFL accolades.

The PFL 2015 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year went to Campbell's Jack Ryan. Four Camels were also named to the 2015 Academic All-PFL teams. The offseason saw another Campbell first, with defensive tackle Greg Milhouse Jr. (New York Giants) and long snapper Danny Dillon (Arizona Cardinals) both signing NFL contracts.

2014 saw the Camels notch their second-most total and conference wins at 5-7 overall and 4-4 in PFL play. A school record seven Camels, plus eight honorable mentions, were named to the 2014 All-Pioneer Football League teams, including four first teamers. Eight CU student-athletes, with six first team members, were tabbed PFL All-Academic.

In Minter's first season as head coach at CU, the Camels set 21 offensive team records, including rushing yards (2,800), passing yards (2,436), and total offense (5,236). The Camels also established four defensive marks, including sacks (27), and posted three team records on special teams.

Senior Kurt Odom became Campbell's first football All-America selection, earning Third Team honors from the Sports Network. Odom was also named First Team All-PFL while seven Camels took home honorable mention nods.

Minter picked up his first win as a collegiate head coach in his home debut as the Camels cruised to a 56-21 triumph over UVA-Wise.

Minter, a member of two national championship teams at Nebraska and the Panthers' 2003 Super Bowl squad, joined the Fighting Camel program after serving as assistant coach at Liberty University in 2012 and Johnson C. Smith University in 2011. He also brought head coaching experience from First Assembly Christian School in Concord, where he guided his teams to 33 victories and two state titles in three seasons.

During his 10-year NFL career, Minter earned a starting safety role six games into his rookie year in 1997, and held that position until he retired after the 2006 season. A second-round draft choice, he helped lead the Panthers to three playoff trips, the 2003 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Minter and his wife Kim have four children – Michael Jr., Isaiah, McKenna and Brianna.

since 2008. The matchup was originally slated for Saturday, September 15 in Conway, S.C., but was shifted up three days and to Buies Creek due to the impending threat of Hurricane Florence.

The game marked Campbell's third all-time (since 2008) against a FBS member, making trips to Old Dominion in 2013 and Appalachian State in 2014.

HAPPIER THAN A CAMEL ON WEDNESDAY

Campbell's midweek matinee against the Chanticleers marked the program's first game ever played on a Wednesday. The Camels have played six times on Thursday nights, all over the last seven years. Campbell's first Thursday matchup came in its 2012 opener, hosting Shorter. CU also hosted Chowan on Thursday (August 30) to open the 2018 season.

A tradition among other Campbell sports teams on Wednesdays, the Camels sported orange jerseys and pants for the contest.

CAMELS TO HOST SEVEN GAMES IN 2018

With Campbell's week three matchup moved to Buies Creek, the Camels are on schedule to host seven home games in 2018, the most in program history. In its 11th season, Campbell has played six home games seven times, and showcased just five home dates three times (2008, 2009 and 2011).

FLOWERS PLAYING 2018 AS GRAD STUDENT

Sixth-year Campbell defensive end Darren Flowers is one of 1,161 student-athletes who have already earned their undergraduate degrees playing college football this fall while pursuing second diplomas, as announced by the National Football Foundation (NFF) & College Hall of Fame.

Flowers, granted another year of eligibility after losing the 2017 season due to a second knee injury, graduated from Campbell with a degree in business management in the fall of 2017. He also missed time in 2014 after playing in just four games.

A Chesapeake, Va. native, Flowers has played in 42 games at CU from 2013-18, making 92 total tackles, including 12.0 stops for loss and 4.0 sacks, with two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and two passes defended.

The numbers include 837 players from 125 schools in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS), 203 players from 57 schools in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS), 102 players from 26 schools in Division II, nine players from nine schools in Division III and 10 players from four schools in the NAIA.

BLOCKMON ADDS TO RESUME

Aaron Blockmon set the school's all-time touchdowns record with a second quarter reception against Shaw, passing former running back De'Shawn Jones on the all-time list. Blockmon picked up 89 yards while matching a career high with eight catches, adding the TD.

Now with 24 total touchdowns, Blockmon is also Campbell's career leader in reception yards (2553), receptions (142) and TD receptions (23).

SMITH BECOMES ALL-TIME PASSING YARDS LEADER

Daniel Smith became CU's all-time passing yards leader (now with 3,286), passing Braden Smith's (2,619) career mark. Smith set the mark in his 14th career game, Campbell's 42-0 win over Shaw. Smith passed for 227 yards, completing 22-of-28 passes with two touchdowns on the night, adding 100 yards rushing and two more scores.

Smith, a redshirt sophomore, is already Campbell's career leader in passing TDs (30), total offense yards (5,053) and TDs responsible for (52), among other categories. He owns Campbell records in 30 total categories.

Smith combined for four touchdowns and 278 yards, leading Campbell over North Alabama 30-7. Smith passed for 163 yards, completing 16-of-24 passes with three touchdowns, adding three touchdown throws. The redshirt sophomore added 115 yards and another TD rushing, logging his seventh career 100-yard rushing performance, and second straight. It also marked the seventh time Smith has accounted for four or more touchdowns in a game, including four this season.

THREE CAMELS TAKE BIG SOUTH WEEKLY HONORS 9/24

For the second time in three weeks, three Camels have been named Big South football players of the week. Campbell's Daniel Smith was named the league's offensive player of the week, while Brad Dennis collected special teams and Justice Galloway-Velazquez tallied freshman honors.

Smith, a quarterback from Leesburg, Va., took his second Big South Player of the Week honor of the year, becoming CU's all-time passing yards leader (2,811) while posting his sixth career 100-yard effort on the ground, combining for 327 yards and four touchdowns in Campbell's 42-0 win over Shaw.

Dennis punted three times for a 46.3 yards per average, pinning the Bears inside the 20 twice. Galloway-Velazquez helped Campbell pick up its first shutout of the 2018 season, posting a team-high six tackles, including 2.0 stops for loss and 1.0 sack.

DEFENSE HANGS A ZERO

Campbell picked up its sixth modern era shutout (since 2008) with a 42-0 win over Shaw. It marked the Camels third straight season with at least one shutout.

EXTRA POINT STREAK

Campbell has converted 84 consecutive extra point attempts, dating back to 2016. Colin Gary is 32-for-32 this season, and 40-for-40 in his career.

CAMELS ADD UNC, ECU TO FUTURE FOOTBALL SCHEDULES

Campbell has added four future football dates, including North Carolina and East Carolina, plus a home and home series with The Citadel. Campbell will travel to Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium for the first time on September 22, 2022 at East Carolina. North Carolina becomes Campbell's first Atlantic Coast Conference opponent on the schedule, with the Tar Heels welcoming the Camels to Chapel Hill on November 4, 2023.

With the additions, Campbell will face at least one FBS opponent in each of the next five seasons, including Troy in 2019, Georgia Southern in 2020 and Liberty in 2021. The Camels also head to Coastal Carolina this season, taking on the Chanticleers on September 15.

Campbell and The Citadel have also agreed to a home and home series, kicking off in Buies Creek on September 22, 2022. The Camels will return the trip on September 9, 2023, meeting the Bulldogs in Charleston, S.C.

The announcement also includes a change in the Camels' previously announced William & Mary series. Campbell was originally slated to host the Tribe on October 12, 2019, with that date moving to 2023. The Camels will head to Williamsburg, Va. in 2022. Both dates are to be determined. With the four game additions, Campbell now has 16 future opponents on the books from 2019-23.
