Monmouth 35, Charleston So. 13

Oct. 26, 2019 • Buccaneer Field • Charleston, SC

CHARLESTON, SC- Monmouth University senior quarterback Kenji Bahar became the school's all-time passing leader as the Hawks improved to 6-2 (3-0 Big South) with a 35-13 win over Charleston Southern (2-6, 0-2 Big South) on Saturday night.

Bahar threw for 194 yards and three touchdowns to pass Brian Boland as the Monmouth leader in passing yards. The fifth-year senior now has 8,000 yards passing for the Blue & White.

Running back Pete Guerriero finished with a career-high 221 yards rushing on 22 carries with a touchdown. His 221 yards is the fourth most in school history. He now has 1,022 yards on the season, his second career 1,000-yard game.

Monmouth, who has won three straight in the series, has outscored CSU 72-16 in the last two games.

On Bahar's second completion of the game he uncorked a 36-yard pass perfectly to Terrance Greene Jr to put move past Boland for first in the MU annals. The reception also put the Hawks up 7-0 just 12:18 into play.

With Monmouth driving on their second possession a tipped ball was intercepted and returned to the MU 42. CSU moved deep into Monmouth territory on an inside run but the defense forced a 33-yard Alex Usry field goal to preserve a 7-3 lead.

After a Ryan Kost punt put the Bucs back on their own two, CSU drove 88 yards on 16 plays but the Monmouth defense stiffened again, forcing a 27-yard field goal. The Hawks answered with an eight-play 58 yard drive that ended in MU's second touchdown of the contest. On the drive Lonnie Moore had a 17-yard reception and a 19-yard run to set the Hawks up deep in CSU territory. After Devell Jones converted a fourth and one, Bahar hit Shawn Clark for a 13 yard touchdown to put MU ahead 14-6 late in the second.

The Hawks went up 21-6 in the third quarter on a four-yard Jones touchdown which was setup by a Guerriero 63 yard scamper. The Hawks expanded that lead on a play action pass from Bahar to Clark, putting Monmouth up 28-6. Guerriero finished the scoring for the Blue & White with a 42 yard run with 5:08 to play. CSU finally reached the endzone with 4:01 remaining on a Jack Chambers scramble.

NOTES

- The first quarter interception was the first turnover in two games for the Hawks
- Pete Guerriero went over 100 yards for the fifth time this season and 16th of his career
- Guerriero's 63-yard run in the third quarter was the second longest run of the season for the redshirt junior behind last week's 65 yarder.
- Justin Terry recorded his 23rd career pass defended which ties him for 10th all time with former Hawk Mike Pitts
- Shawn Clark scored a pair of touchdowns in the same game for the first time in his career
- Bahar has now thrown 56 career touchdown passes, two away from tying Brian Boland for most all-time for the Blue & White
- Senior linebacker Evan Powell ended a drive deep in Monmouth territory with a strip sack of Jack Chambers, also recovering the ball.

HEAD COACH KEVIN CALLAHAN

The only head coach in the history of football at Monmouth, Kevin Callahan has developed a winning tradition in West Long Branch. Callahan, whose 158 wins is 8th among active coaches at the FCS level, has guided a once fledgling non-scholarship program to the Big South Conference and its first NCAA playoff berth in 2017. He is one of three FCS coaches with 150+ wins all at one institution and his 26 years as a head coach is the seventh most among active coaches. Currently in his 27th season at the helm of the Hawks, Callahan has amassed a 158-123 record while his teams have captured five conference titles. Along the way, Monmouth has been ranked among the top 20 in total offense on three occasions and in total defense five times. Meanwhile, over 140 players have earned conference recognition, while numerous Hawks have earned regional and national honors. Regarded as an outstanding coach by his peers, Callahan served as the President of the FCS Football Coaches Committee in 2007-08 and served a 10-year term as a member of the committee. Under his watch, 12 former Hawks have earned spots on NFL rosters, including Super Bowl Champion Chris Hogan and Miles Austin who was an All-Pro wide receiver for the Dallas Cowboys.

Academically, Callahan's squads have consistently performed at a high level. Eleven players have been named to the prestigious FCS ADA Academic All-Star team (average of 55 FCS players selected per season) a total 14 times. Monmouth has had at least one representative on the Capital One Academic All-District Team in 15 of the last 16 seasons, including three-time selection Joe Johnson who was also a two-time Big South All-Academic Team member. Monmouth has ranked either first or second among Big South schools in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) in each of the last three seasons that data has been available.

In 2018 Monmouth's offense was one of the top in all of the FCS setting over 15 individual and team records. The Hawks completed their second consecutive eight-win season while finishing second in the Big South. A Monmouth record 12 Hawks earned spots on the All-Big South Team while freshman running back Juwon Farri earned Big South Offensive Freshman of the Year and finished fifth in the Jerry Rice Award voting. Wideout Reggie White Jr. set almost every single-season and career receiving mark and his efforts were rewarded with numerous All-America nods and a free agent contract with the New York Giants.

The Hawks took another huge step in 2017, opening the brand new 16 million dollar Kessler Stadium, earning its first national ranking and its first NCAA Playoff berth. Callahan guided the Hawks to a 9-3 overall record, including a 4-1 mark in the Big South, and faced Northern Iowa in the NCAA First Round. In addition to going 5-0 at home, the Hawks strung together a seven-game win streak heading into the final game of the regular season.

For his efforts, Callahan finished 10th in the voting for the Eddie Robinson Award, handed out to the nation's top FCS Coach. Under his tutelage, Mike Basile became the most decorated player in Monmouth history, earning consensus All-America honors including First Team accolades from the Associated Press. Basile, who was named as the FCS's top defensive back by the FCS ADA, led nine players on All-Big South teams, including freshman Pete Guerriero who was a first team selection at both running back and kick returner. Guerriero was the Big South's Co-Freshman of the Year and was named to two All-American teams.

The honors didn't stop there for Basile and Guerriero, with each being named as finalists for national awards, with the former earning a sixth place finish in the voting for the Buck Buchanan Award (Nation's top defensive player).

Prior to accepting the head coaching position at Monmouth in August of 1992, Callahan served as assistant coach at Colgate University for eight seasons. While with the Raiders, Callahan served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator, while tutoring the linebackers and secondary. Callahan groomed his defensive coordinating skills at Wagner College from 1981 to 1983. In 1980, Callahan served as an assistant coach prior to accepting the head coaching position at Monmouth in August of 1992, Callahan served as assistant coach at Colgate University for eight seasons. While with the Raiders, Callahan served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator, while tutoring the linebackers and secondary. Callahan groomed his defensive coordinating skills at Wagner College from 1981 to 1983. In 1980, Callahan served as an assistant coach under Frank Maloney at Syracuse University. He served as the assistant offensive backfield coach for the Orangemen.

A native of Elmira, N.Y., Callahan began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for three seasons at the University of Albany from 1977 to 1979. Callahan was a two-year standout defensive back at the University of Rochester. He earned a bachelor's degree in history from Rochester in 1977.

Callahan and his wife, Ann Marie, reside in Spring Lake Heights. They have two children, Kevin Jr. and Julia. His son Kevin Jr, a five-year veteran of collegiate coaching, recently joined the Hawk coaching staff mentoring the wideouts.

Construction began on the Kessler Stadium project prior to the start of the 2016 football season, with the old structure being completely removed days after Monmouth's last home game on Oct. 29. The new stadium features more than 4,200 seats, including 800 chair-back seats, and stretches from endzone to endzone. The facility includes full concourse with concession stands and bathrooms, a state-of-the-art press box, multimedia booths, coaches' booths and a ticket office.

For the opening of the Monmouth Hawks' first football season in 1993, a 3,000-seat grandstand with press box was built. Alumni John and Henni Kantor Kessler, class of 1969 and 1968, respectively, donated $250,000 toward construction. Kessler Field was built in 1993 and opened for the Hawks' inaugural season. On September 25, 1993, the first-ever game was played at Kessler Field as the Hawks hosted Sacred Heart University. Incidentally, the Pioneers won the coin toss and elected to receive the ball, which was kicked off by Randy Brewster at 1:06 p.m. The Hawks' first offensive play was a reverse, resulting in a four-yard gain by William Holder. Sacred Heart posted a 12-0 shutout in the contest.

Although the facility officially seats 4,600 fans, a record crowd of 6,233 packed Kessler Field on Homecoming Weekend in 1993. The spectators witnessed a barnburner as the Hawks fell to Hartwick, 17-13. On December 2, 2007 Kessler Field hosted the Inaugural Gridiron Classic.

HENNI KANTOR KESSLER & JOHN H. KESSLER

This season will mark the second season of football in Henni Kantor Kessler & John H. Kessler Stadium. On July 10, 2017 the Kesslers announced a seven-figure gift to name Monmouth's brand new stadium. The Kesslers were members of the original "Touchdown Club," which helped bring football to the school back in 1992. Henni and John pledged the first gift to get the original Kessler Field built, and saw more than 350,000 fans support 109 football games over the first 24 years of the program. The Kesslers have been involved with Monmouth University since arriving on campus as students. Both Henni and John have a long history with Hawk athletics, Henni serving as captain of the cheerleading team while John played baseball for the Blue & White. Henni is a former trustee and member of the University's Society of Trustees, while John is a trustee emeritus.

HAWKS SELECT TEAM CAPTAINS

Fifth-year senior quarterback Kenji Bahar, senior linebacker Evan Powell, fifth-year senior defensive back Tymere Berry and fifth-year senior John Gallina have been named as team captains for the 2019 season. Berry is the only returning captain and the move to four captains is a departure from the last two seasons when MU had two season captains and two game captains.

GUERRIERO RUSHES INTO SECOND IN MONMOUTH RECORD BOOKS

Junior running back Pete Guerriero moved into second all-time at Monmouth in rushing with 2,594 yards. He went over 100 all-purpose yards for the fifth time this season while finishing with 11 carries for 81 yards with a 48 yard touchdown. He came into the game just 63 yards shy of second place and Julian Hayes but now trails David Sinisi by 2,457 yards for first all-time. He is now 11th all-time in Big South history in rushing and needs just 29 to move into 10th place all-time.

AUMER NAMED AS AFCA ALLSTATE GOODWORKS NOMINEE

Junior defensive lineman Kurt Aumer recently became the second Monmouth player to be named as a AFCA AllState Goodworks Team Nominee (Ryan Wetzel, 2018). Off of the field, Aumer is involved with almost every community service project that the team is involved with. For the second straight year he was an integral part of the Monmouth's "Be the Match" campaign, a national football program that matches donors to patients with blood cancers. Aumer is also heavily involved with Monmouth Football's Team Impact effort, mentoring and spending time with the Hawks' selected teammate. He spent hours in January reading to children as part of the 'Read Across America' and he annually participates in the Schroth School for Children Holiday Party and Super Bowl Party. He is part of the Monmouth SAAC Executive board and one of the Co-Founders and MSAAC Representative of the Peer Mentor Program starting this fall called FLIGHT Academy.
