THIS WEEK'S OPPONENT ...

KSU'S LAST GAME

Kennesaw State became the first Big South Conference program to put together three-straight 10-win seasons after the Owls soared past Gardner-Webb 42-14.

It didn't take long to figure out the Owls were making their case for an at-large berth in the FCS Championship playoffs, as Cincere Mason came down with an interception on the first play from scrimmage. Two plays later, Tommy Bryant rushed for his eighth touchdown of the season to put Kennesaw State on top, 7-0, a minute into the contest.

Gardner-Webb took advantage of a muffed snap on a punt midway through the first quarter and tied up the game with a 15-yard strike at the 5:14 mark in the first quarter. Bronson Rechsteiner broke loose for a 40-yard run in the second quarter that setup Bryant's second rushing score of the day to gave Kennesaw State back the lead with 12:30 in the second frame. The second quarter ended with there, with the Owls claiming a 14-7 advantage at the break.

Kennesaw State waited to come alive until the second half, when the Owls rattled off 14 third quarter points. Tommy Bryant rushed for his third touchdown with 5:42 left in the third quarter before Jalen Jackson blocked a punt and returned it for a touchdown at the 3:23 mark. Bryant found the end zone from three yards out to put the Owls up 35-7 with 8:23 left to play.

Bronson Rechsteiner showed off his wheels midway through the fourth quarter when the senior took a handoff 65 yards up the middle for Kennesaw State's final score of the day. The Runnin' Bulldogs cut the lead to 42-14 with a 28-yard pass with 2:33, but could not do anymore damage.

Bryant ended with a career-high 154 yards on the ground in addition to his four scores. Rechsteiner finished with 128 yards, as the Owls produced two 100-plus yard rushers for the first time since at Missouri State (Sept. 21) earlier this year.

KENNESAW, Georgia – Wofford's season ended in a 13-10 loss to Kennesaw State at Fifth Third Bank Stadium on Saturday afternoon in the second round of the NCAA FCS Playoffs. In a defensive battle, it was a late turnover by the Terriers that the Owls turned into the game-winning field goal with 1:52 left in the game that was the difference.

The Owls converted a fourth-and-four with a pass and had a 40-yard field goal as time expired to tie the game at 10.

The Owls had the ball to begin the second half and had one first down. On fourth-and-one, a pass was intercepted by JoJo Tillery and Wofford took over at the 13-yard line. Joe Newman ran for a first down and a pass to D'mauria VanCleave moved the ball across midfield, but the Terriers had to punt. Kennesaw State started on the 12-yard line and went three-and-out. Wofford followed with a three-and-out on their next possession, but the Terrier defense also forced a three-and-out. ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Wofford's football program has ranked among the top 10 percent of FCS teams in the Academic Performance Review (APR) in eight of the last eleven seasons to earn public recognition. In 2010, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018, Wofford had the highest APR in the SoCon. The Terriers lead the SoCon with 154 Academic All-Southern Conference selections since the program started in 2003.

Among all NCAA Division I (FBS and FCS) football teams, Wofford's APR score of 983 is 41st in the nation. The Terriers are ahead of schools such as Harvard (981), Georgia Tech (980), Samford (980), Baylor (879), Rice (977), and Wake Forest (979).

Wofford has had at least one player named CoSIDA/Capital One First Team All-District in each of the last 19 seasons. In 2018 Blake Jeresaty was named Academic All-District. In addition, safety James Zotto was named an Academic All-American in 2014.

rushing yards and Donovan Johnson recorded his first career 100-yard rushing game with 123 yards. It was the first time in Wofford history with three rushers over 100 yards in the same game. Wofford repeated the feat on September 24, 2011 against Samford (Johnson 173, Breitenstein 126, Allen 110) and on September 15, 2012 against Western Carolina (Breitenstein 160, Weimer 141, Johnson 126). Against Western Carolina on October 19, 2019, the Terriers again had three go over the 100 mark (Irvin Mulligan 106, Jaquez Allen 105, Joe Newman 104).

400 RUSHING YARDS

In four straight games, Wofford went over the 400-yard rushing mark. This includes Gardner-Webb (489), VMI (439), East Tennessee State (409) and Western Carolina (428). In 2018 the Terriers had three games of 400+ rushing, but none in 2016 and 2017. Wofford had four in 2015 (including three straight games) and none in 2014. There was one in 2013. During the 2012 season, there were five games over 400 yards which included a four-game stretch against Gardner-Webb (402), Lincoln (449), Western Carolina (590), and Elon (500). There were also four games in 2011.

OPPONENT 100-YARD RUSHERS

A big part of the defense is not allowing an opponent to have a 100+ yard rusher. The Terriers went 17 games without allowing a 100+ rusher (last 2 games in 2013, 11 games in 2014, first four games in 2015). They then went an additional 19 games without a 100+ rusher. The 200+ rushing yards by Jody Webb were the most allowed since 2009. Wofford didn't allow a 100+ rusher in 2017. Twice in 2018 there were 100+ yard rushers against the Terriers and there have been four in 2019.

Youngstown State had 240 in the playoffs, the most by an opponent that season. Wofford held 2017 opponents to under 100 yards rushing six times (Gardner-Webb 99, Samford 10, ETSU 15, Chattanooga 99, VMI 80, and Furman 52). In 2018, VMI, Wyoming, Gardner-Webb, Chattanooga, ETSU, Samford and Elon were held to under 100 rushing yards. Wofford scored more than Texas A&M (10), Syracuse (6), Charlotte (10), Louisville (10), Boston College (7), North Carolina State (10) and Wake Forest (3).

has 1,828 career rushing yards. Nathan Walker is nearing the mark at 994 yards.

A LITTLE MORE PASSING

In 2012, Wofford ran the ball almost 90% of the time. Since then, the Terriers have relied a little less on the run in the option offense. Of the 854 plays in 2018, 663 were rushes with 191 passes for an 77.6% run offense.

JOE NEWMAN MOVING UP THE CHARTS

This season quarterback Joe Newman has moved across the 2,000 yard career passing mark to rank seventh in school history in the category. He only played in five games with 27 passing yards as a freshman, then added 167 passing yards in 2017. Last year he threw for 1,070 yards and this season he is at 1,037 yards. He is the first quarterback with back-to-back 1,000 passing seasons since Travis Wilson (1999-2001).

In 2017, the big play (20+ rushing and receiving; 30+ return) was a key part of the Wofford offense, with 67 total big plays. In 2018, the Terriers had 67 big plays which included eleven each against VMI and Gardner-Webb. So far in 2019, after just two big plays against S.C. Luther has added 12. Sixteen different players have made big plays.

KEEPING THE CLOCK

One of the best defenses is keeping the ball away from the opponent. The Terriers have used this strategy for decades, annually one of the national leaders in time of possession. This year is no exception as Wofford is second in the nation in the category. The longest drive this season lasted 8:21 (against Samford) and nine drives have gone six minutes or more.

In the final poll, Wofford was #11 in the Coaches Poll and #9 in the STATS poll. The Terriers began the 2017 season ranked #11 in both polls and finished 6th (STATS) and 7th (Coaches). During 2018, the team started the year at 10th (STATS) and 11th (Coaches) and were as high as fourth before finishing 13th (STATS) and 12th (Coaches). HOLD ONTO THE BALL

One common denominator over the seasons has been turnovers. After being +7 in turnovers during the 2012 SoCon Championship season, the Terriers were in the negative for the 2013, 2014 and 2015 seasons. In the 2016 title season, Wofford only had 14 turnovers (ten fumbles and four interceptions) and had 25 take-aways (18 interceptions, seven fumble recoveries) to be +11 (+0.79 pg). In 2017, Wofford was + 0.46 with 14 turnovers (eleven fumbles, three interceptions) and 20 take-aways (eleven interceptions, nine fumbles) to repeat as SoCon Champions. This season after throwing four interceptions in the season opener at South Carolina State, there have only been four turnovers since (two fumbles, two interceptions). Wofford has only nine take-aways (two fumbles, seven interceptions) which is 122 of 124 teams in the nation.

TERRIERS IN THE NFL

Three Terriers were on NFL rosters at the beginning of training camp in 2019. Defensive lineman Miles Brown '19 signed as a rookie free agent with the Arizona Cardinals and was on the 53-man roster on opening weekend and played in weeks two and three before moving to the practice squad. He returned to the active roster in November. Safety JoJo Tillery '19 signed as a rookie free agent with the Tennessee Titans and was waived after training camp. Punter Kasey Redfern '14 signed as a free agent with the Dallas Cowboys in 2019 and was waived after training camp. He was signed by the Atlanta Falcons on October 11 and has played in the last three games. Redfern made the 53-man roster for the Detroit Lions in 2017 and kicked in the season opener against Arizona before an injury landed him on injured reserve. He spent time on the Chargers practice squad in 2015 before joining the Carolina Panthers during the 2016 preseason and was traded to the Browns. He entered the NFL as a rookie free agent with the Jaguars in 2014.

MR. RICHARDSON

Jerry Richardson came to Wofford in the mid-1950s as an unheralded pass receiver from Fayetteville, N.C. By the time he left to begin his pro career with the Baltimore Colts, the passing combination of Charlie Bradshaw to Jerry Richardson had received nationwide fame. Richardson was an Associated Press Little All-America selection in 1957 and '58. He still holds Wofford's single-game record with 241 receiving yards vs. Newberry in 1956 and is the record holder for touchdown receptions in a season (9 in 1958) and in a career (21). As a senior at Wofford, he scored 72 points on nine touchdowns, 12 extra points and two field goals. Drafted by the defending world champion Colts, Richardson played two seasons in the NFL, earning Colt Rookie of the Year honors in 1959 and finishing third in the balloting for top NFL rookie. He was the founder of the Carolina Panthers. In

JOSH CONKLIN

*Head Coach • Second Season
Dakota State '03*

@COACHCONKLIN

Josh Conklin is entering his second season as head coach of the Wofford College football team. In his first season at the helm, the Terriers won the Southern Conference Championship and reached the second round of the NCAA FCS Playoffs.

Wofford announced on Tuesday, January 2, 2018, the hiring of Josh Conklin as head football coach. Conklin, who spent the previous three seasons as the defensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh, was an assistant coach at Wofford from 2007-09 working with the secondary. Conklin has additional experience at Florida International, Tennessee, The Citadel and South Dakota State University, serving as the defensive coordinator at Pitt, Florida International and The Citadel.

The 2018 season began with SoCon wins over The Citadel and VMI and the team was 6-2 heading into November. A win over Western Carolina on November 10 secured a 6-2 mark in league play, which was good for a share of the Southern Conference Championship.

In the first round of the playoffs, Wofford defeated Elon 19-7 at Gibbs Stadium. In the second round, the season came to an end with a 13-10 loss to #4 seed Kennesaw State. Conklin was one of only three first-year head coaches to lead his team to the playoffs and he was the only one to earn a victory.

The Terriers had eleven players earn All-Southern Conference honors following the season. In addition, Miles Brown, Justus Basinger and Andre Stoddard were recognized as All-Americans. Wofford ended the season ranked #12 by the FCS Coaches and #13 in the STATS FCS poll. The team was first in the Southern Conference in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, passing defense and rushing offense.

Conklin served as Pitt's defensive coordinator for three seasons. Under Conklin's watch, Pitt featured one of the most productive pass rushes in the country. The Panthers ranked sixth nationally in sacks in 2016, averaging 3.31 per contest. Pitt compiled 111 sacks during his three seasons.

In 2017, the Panthers ended the season with a 24-14 upset of undefeated and #2 ranked Miami. Pitt had four sacks in the game and held the Hurricanes to 45 rushing yards. Conklin's 2016 unit also boasted lofty national rankings in rush defense (16th, 119.6 yards per game) and defensive touchdowns (eighth, four TDs). The Panthers had a 43-42 win over eventual national champion Clemson in Death Valley to highlight an 8-5 season that culminated in the trip to the Pinstripe Bowl. In his first season as defensive coordinator, Pitt posted an 8-5 record and earned a berth in the Military Bowl.

Conklin joined Pitt after building an impressive resume as FIU's defensive coordinator for two years (2013-14). In his final season, he was nominated for the prestigious Broyles Award after overseeing a unit that ranked first nationally in fumble recoveries (19), second in defensive touchdowns (six), fourth in turnovers gained (33), eighth in turnover margin (plus-11 overall; 0.92 margin per game) and 35th in total defense (363.8 yards per game).

Prior to FIU, Conklin was the safeties coach at the University of Tennessee (2012) and defensive coordinator and safeties coach at The Citadel (2010-11). While at The Citadel, Conklin coached cornerback Cortez Allen, a member of the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2011-15. The Bulldogs were especially stingy in scoring defense in 2011, holding their opponents under 20 points in seven of 11 contests (64%).

From 2007-09, Conklin coached the defensive backs at Wofford. He added special teams to his responsibilities in his final season working with the Terriers. In Conklin's initial two years, Wofford had 33 interceptions. The Terriers led the Southern Conference in 2007 with 20 interceptions and ranked second in 2008 with 13. Wofford advanced to the FCS Playoffs in each of those seasons. In 2007, the Terriers won the Southern Conference and led the league in scoring defense.

Conklin's coaching career was launched at South Dakota State, where he served as a graduate assistant in 2003 and 2004. He then was promoted to a full-time post with the Jackrabbits, coaching the secondary and special teams in 2005 and 2006.

Conklin is a 2003 graduate of Dakota State University. He was a starting linebacker and Academic All-American for the Trojans. A native of Gillette, Wyoming, Conklin was born June 19, 1979.

In addition to his bachelor's in physical education from DSU, Conklin also earned a master's in sport administration from South Dakota State. He and his wife, Molly, have two children - son Clark and daughter Millie. His brother-in-law, Al Clark III, was a four-year letterman at Wofford and graduated in 2002, while his father-in-law, Al Clark, Jr., was also a four-year football letterman at Wofford and graduated in 1976.
